Alexandria Gazette Burke & Herbert,

TAURSDAY EVEN'G., NOVEMBER 27.

A SCRIPTURAL COURTSHIP .- A young gen tleman happered to sit at church in a pew adjoining one which a young lady occupied for whom he conceived a sudden passion and was desirious of entering into a courtship on the spot. The emergency of the case suggested the following plan: He politely handed his fair neighbor a Bible, open with a pin stuck in the following text: Second epistle of John, verse fifth—
"And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new command ment unto thee, but that which we had in the beginning, that we love one which we had in the beginning, that we love one another." She returned it, pointed to the second chapter of Ruth, verse tenth—"Then she fell on her face and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, why have I found grace in thine eyes, seeing that I am a stranger?" He returned the book, pointing to the thirteenth verse of the third epistle of John—"Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto you and speak face to face." From this unto you and speak face to face." From this interview a marriage took place.

Pare drinking water is of the first importance. More dangerous poisons are taken into the system with the water used, than in any other way. That from the brocks is dangerous, as wash from manured fields and seakage from the soil flows into them. Water from clear wells and springs only should be given to cattle, and if such precaution is needed for them, it is equally so for the owners. Much avoidable disease is due to impure water.
